That the succeeding generation should not be in ignorance of the proceedings of the towns of Eastham and Orleans. A May the people to take notice that previous to the 2nd day of March, 1797, the towns of Eastham and Orleans were both in one incorporated town at which period the town of Orleans was by an act of the Great and General Court of this commonwealth set off and incorporated into a town by itself.

Joseph Peper, as interpreter of the said town of Orleans, here being the only selectman left for the town of Eastham, was by the authority and consent of the said town of Orleans, and with the said Peper, and authority to warn a legal annual town meeting some time in the month of March or April for the purpose of choosing town officers and any other business that might be in order.

Accordingly a warrant was issued as follows:

"Be it known to the Constable of the town of Eastham, Greeting thee, to well and truely execute the warrant of law full and freeholder and other inhabitants, by constitution to vote on town affairs, to assemble and congregate at the meeting house in said Eastham on Tuesday which is the 15th day of this instant month at one of the clock. In the afternoon then, and there to choose a committee of five men as the law directs, and also to choose a committee to settle our town affairs with a town of Orleans. If the town shall think proper, to make the returns of this year, and your doing on or before said meeting this warrant, given under my hand and seal this tenth day of March AD 1797.

Joseph Peper, Selectman."
At the aforesaid Meeting the officers chosen were as follows:

Benjamin Clark & Town Clerk and Treasurer,
Joseph Fisher,
Samuel Freeman, Select Men,
James Mayo.

Samuel Freeman.
Elisha Mayo, assessor.
Elisha Mayo.
Joseph Snow, constable.
Joseph Cook, Light-houseman.
Daniel Knowl, Overseer.
John Knowl, Overseer.

Elisha Mayo, Swain of boards and shingles.
Grace pain, booker, reckless.
Elkanah Higgins, receiver of highway.
John Knowl.
Richard Atwood, cooper.
James Richmond.
James Atwood.
James Doane.
Benjamin Knowl.
Josiah Mayo.
John Knowl.

William Myrick, pound keeper.
Benjamin Knowl, scaler of weights and measures.
John Doane.
Benjamin Clark, Committee to settle with ordnary.

Samuel Freeman.
The forementioned Committee met at the House of Solicitors, in the Town of Newbury, on the 11th day of May 1793, and reported as follows:

We, the Subscribers, the Joint Committee of the town of Eastham, and of ladies appointed and directed by the town meeting and adjourned, and all the property of said town, agreeable to the proper law act of the said town aforesaid, have accordingly met at the dwelling house of Mr. John Adams, and have fully considered all the accounts and the valuation and property in the town stock at the time of said incorporation.

We find that the said town of Orleans is indebted to the said town of Eastham two hundred and seventeen dollars and twenty-five cents, and to the said town of Orleans to have the benefit of all sums of outstanding loans to the Collector which we said town and that the said town of Eastham shall pay to the said town of Orleans as soon as any of the portinornt part of the same shall be made payable to said town, and shall become chargeable to said town, together with their interest, and all sums of money due to the said town of Eastham and the same due to the said town of Orleans and that all moneys owing from all accounts and property that belongs to Eastham prior to said incorporation shall be kept and belong to said town of Orleans and that said town of Orleans shall have and hold one hundred and a half pounds of powder formerly belonging to the town stock and three hundred and sixty-five pounds of lead and one hundred and Nineteen shillings and nine pence, as well as other moneys by said court, and that all the remaining stock and property shall remain and belong to said Eastham.
